

ADAPTATIONS

COMMUNITY OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY SERVICE

The Community Occupational Therapy Service offers an assessment and advice service to the disabled person living at home on matters relating to practical difficulties in daily living i.e. bathing, dressing, kitchen activities, mobility and internal access of property. They will then act as a link between the disabled person, the District Council and the Social Services Department to ensure that their recommendations on the supply of aids or the provision of adaptations are carried out where possible.
