

TOURIST INFORMATION

Tourist Information is available at a regional and local level. Both can provide a variety of helpful information, if you are thinking about a holiday, day trip or just a short visit (shopping trip etc.)

Most Tourist Information Centres will be able to give you advice on:- the location of disabled parking spaces, accessible toilets and they will often send out maps and answer questions about access issues for particular buildings and attractions.

Tourist information exists at a very local level (Tourist Information Centres) and at regional level. (Tourist Information Boards)
